

FIABCI Diploma Requirements

For a University that is an Academic member of FIABCI to have the honor of awarding the FIABCI Diploma to students graduating from a Master in Real Estate Program, the following requirements must be met:

1. Provide a summary/overview of the University and the Real Estate Program under consideration;
2. Provide the Admissions Guidelines for the University Program;
3. The FIABCI course modules must be covered adequately in the University program to have a University approved. (Program completion requirements will vary from University/Country to University/Country, however, in general the Diploma requires successful completion of a minimum of ten approved courses);

These modules will include, at a minimum, a focus on topics such as the following:

- ❖ Taking advantage of International Real Estate Opportunities;
- ❖ Working with Overseas Cultures, Ethics, Transparency and Practices;
- ❖ Fundamentals of International Real Estate Markets;
- ❖ International Real Estate Brokerage;
- ❖ Building an International Real Estate Network and Marketing your service overseas;
- ❖ Investing and Developing in Overseas Real Estate Markets;
- ❖ Property and Asset Management in an Overseas Market; and
- ❖ Appraisal, Financing, Legal and Accounting in Overseas Real Estate Markets.

4. Provide a summary of any changes in the syllabus for the FIABCI Member University's Masters in Real Estate program.

The Application Materials, including the Program Curriculum, must be submitted to the FIABCI Education and Academic Member Committee through the Office of the Secretariat in Paris, France (Patricia Delaney at patricia.delaney@fiabci.org) for approval to award the FIABCI Diploma.

The University agrees that any approval to award the FIABCI Diploma is subject to specific terms and conditions and it can be revoked, at any time, at the discretion of FIABCI.

The Diploma will be sent electronically to the University for preparation to award to each individual student.

Names and contact information for the FIABCI Diploma recipients must be submitted to the FIABCI Secretariat.

With members in 65 countries, including 100 Professional Associations, 65 Academic Institutions and 3000 individual members from all professions of the real estate sector, FIABCI is the most representative organization of the real estate industry in the world. FIABCI holds Special Consultative Status with the Economic and Social Council of the United Nations.

FIABCI University Members are encouraged to promote student membership in FIABCI, which includes access to the Exchange Program, the Scholarship Foundation, United Nations activities and high-level contacts in real estate throughout the world.
